

MINING REGULATIONS, 1970 (LI 665).

18. Duties of shift bosses and mining foremen.

(a) he is the holder of a recognised degree or diploma in metalliferous mining, or an equivalent qualification and in addition has complied with the requirements of the examinations Regulations; or

(e) he has satisfied a board of examiners appointed by the Chief Inspector of Mines (at least one member of which board shall be a senior mine official) as to his knowledge of mining and these Regulations;

(a) he is the holder of a recognised degree or diploma in mining or metallurgy or an equivalent qualification and in addition has complied with the requirements of the Examinations Regulations; or

(e) he has satisfied a board of examiners appointed by the Chief Inspector of Mines (at least one member of which board shall be a senior mine official) as to his knowledge of mining and these Regulations;

(8) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (6) of this regulations, no person shall carry out, or be permitted to carry out, the duties of a mining foreman unless

(9) Every mining foreman appointed under this regulation who, in the opinion of the Inspector is guilty of inattention to, or negligence in the execution of his duties as a mining foreman as specified in these Regulations, or is guilty of any misconduct likely to be detrimental to the efficient discharge of such duties shall be liable to have his appointment terminated by the manager at the request of the Inspector.

No manager, underground manager or mine captain shall regularly undertake the duties of a shift boss or mining foreman prescribed by these regulations, except with the written permission of the Inspector.

(2) Every shift boss or mining foreman shall be responsible for ensuring the proper observance of the requirements of these Regulations by all persons working under him and shall as soon as practicable report to the manager, underground manager or mine captain any contraventions thereof.

The appointment of a shift boss or mining foreman shall not be taken to relieve the manager, underground manager or mine captain of any personal responsibility under these Regulations.

(1) The Chief Inspector of Mines may, by writing, exempt any oil mining operations, to which any other law for regulating oil mining applies from all or any of the provisions of these Regulations. [Subreg.(1) amended by LI 689 reg.(c).]

Mining Foreman.

The Mining Regulations in force on the day immediately preceding the coming into operation of these regulations are hereby rescinded.

Diamond Mining Corporation 1st July, 1969.

Regulation 4—Notice of Certain Mining Operations.

“Chief Inspector/Director of Mines” includes a Senior Inspector of Mines/Senior Mining Engineer, an Inspector of Mines/Mining Engineer, or any other officer authorised by the Member in writing for purposes of these Regulations;

15. Restriction on grant of land for mining.

No grant shall be made, or concurred to, of any land under the Act for mining unless the grantee is the holder of a minerals licence granted under the Minerals Regulations, 1962 (L.I. 231).

1. Applications for mining licences, etc.

Regulation 1—Applications for Mining Licences, etc.

Cap.	Title of Ordinance	Section Instruments to be L.Is.
------	--------------------	---------------------------------